

BRAMPTON GUARDIAN

Thank God It's Thursday

The Brampton Guardian

June 2, 2010

Starting June 17, Brampton residents can enjoy an impressive array of music and bands all summer long at the Thursday Night Concert Series.

The outdoor concerts will kickoff on select days 7 to 9 p.m., at the Gage Park.

Investors Group, a financial company, that's part of the downtown Brampton community is the supporter of this year's series.

The 2010 lineup includes: the Brampton Concert Band and the Lorne Scots, Jeff Sommerville and the Jazz Mechanics, Daredevils of Soul and the Brampton Folk Club.

"As a prominent member of the Brampton downtown business community, I feel that it is our obligation to give back to the community that supports our business," said Andrew Mackenzie, regional director of Investors Group Financial Services. "I feel very strongly that the downtown area of Brampton can and is becoming a thriving cultural community that residents and visitors can come to and feel a part of a truly great city. The Thursday Night Concert series is a central event that helps to build a warm and inviting community."

For the complete schedule and list of performers, visit: www.bramptondowntown.com.

Noteworthy. The much awaited Thursday Night Concert Series kicks-off June 17, on select days, from 7 to 9 p.m., at the Gage Park. The Brampton Concert Band seen here will be wowing the audience along with the Lorne Scots. Photo by Bryon Johnson

This article is for personal use only courtesy of BramptonGuardian.com - a division of Metroland Media Group Ltd.